PIF raises $220,000 from National Hard Hat Day

2 September 2009

The Property Industry Fund raised $220,000 from National Hard Hat Day.

The Property Industry Foundation (PIF) has raised $220,000 from this year's National Hard Hat Day campaign.

The funds will go to specific projects for several organisations including Barnardos, Open Family Australia, the Salvation Army and Ted Noffs Foundation.

Over 70 companies took part in the fundraiser, according to PIF chairman, Brendan Crotty.

Investa Property Group was the biggest fundraiser by reaching out to their clients and suppliers and promoting the campaign to support homeless children.

Building and construction companies, developers, financiers, agents and other industry players including Savills, Australand, Mainbrace, Arup and Leighton Constructions were also major contributors to this year's campaign.
