National Hard Hat Day

Helping Homeless
Kids

Every night across Australia there are over 36,000 young people who are homeless. These young people have fled from their dysfunctional and abusive environments only to find themselves in a far worse predicament on the streets. If you had to choose between sleeping in an abandoned car, a bus shelter or a cemetery – where would you go?

It's going to be really cold this winter and the National Hard Hat campaign is going to help in our small way. Please give a little of your time and donate an hour or more of your pay this financial year to give these desperate kids a fair go.

We work in a wonderful industry. There are thousands of homeless kids doing it tough and we want you to help them. Sign up now!
