

Press Clipping

Facility Management – December, 2010/January, 2011

---

PIF HELPS HOMELESSNESS

The Property Industry Foundation (PIF) held a Sod Turning Ceremony recently to celebrate the start of construction of a $400,000 project for Barnardos at Hosking Street, Penrith, NSW.

The project is an extension to the Barnardos family and children's centre located in Penrith which is dedicated to young people at risk.

PIF, a charity for the property and construction industry aiming to raise money and awareness to reduce youth homelessness, donated $135,000 to the project with a further $30,000 donated by Australand to assist with funding the works.

The project will include refurbished educational rooms, new offices for counsellors, an undercover courtyard, a new kitchen and a new garden.

PIF

www.pif.com.au