Win a trip for 2
to the Tahiti Nui Cup to be sailed
in Tahiti in October 2007

The Tahiti Nui Cup is a yacht rally owned and run by Mariner Boating Holidays with some fun racing interspersed with relaxation, exploration and cruising in the Leeward Islands of Tahiti.

A Mariner Boating Fun Regatta ... More Lay Days than Races

Race among the stunning tropical Islands of Raiatea, Tahaa and Bora Bora in Tahiti's Leeward Islands. Enjoy an island hopping festival of traditional food and entertainment and when the parties are over cruise the turquoise waters of the most beautiful lagoons in the world.

The ultimate tropical sailing experience with true ocean crossings between the islands and stunning depth of colour in the warm turquoise lagoons at each destination.

The winning package includes:

Accommodation for the trip would be on board one of the participating yachts, which would be shared by up to 3 other couples. The value of the trip is $9,550 including;

- International flights with Air Tahiti Nui
- Airport transfers
- Two nights accommodation in Papeete
- Domestic flights within Tahiti between Papeete and Raiatea
- Accommodation on board a yacht in a double cabin with private facilities for 10 nights
- All functions included in the rally social program

STOP PRESS - further details on how you can win this exciting exotic holiday will be made available on the Property Industry Foundation's website.
